Training

In our view ,training is an investment rather than a business expense. We provide practical, hands-on training with the aim of achieving noticeably improved service levels and operational efficiency. Our training is designed to equip learners with the necessary information and skills to operate with confidence and realize their value within the establishment, thereby becoming an asset to the business. All training done by THEE HOST has a thread of personal motivation throughout. “It is through the heart that we cultivate the mind”.

Grading

The Director of THEE HOST is an Accredited Grading Assessor under the Tourism Grading Council of South Africa. Through the company, we do quality assurance inspections of hospitality establishments nationally. Grading is done against criteria as set out by the Tourism Grading Council of South Africa and star rating is awarded by the Executive Board of the TGCSA.

Consulting

THEE HOST offers expert advice, knowledge and guidance to hospitality product owners either looking to start, grow or turn around their businesses.

We set up operational systems and implement standard operating procedures for starting businesses as well as offer in-house advisory services on growth and turn around strategies to existing and operational establishments. It is through our consulting arm that we coach and mentor establishment managers and owners to heighten their business potential.

We also do relieve management should the manager need to take time off or supplement core staff that cannot be on duty at the required time. Relieve services include, front of house, housekeeping and kitchen.

EXPERTISE

A Hotelier by profession, Thato Thaga has an International Diploma in Hospitality Management, a Higher Diploma in Business Management and a B.Comm Degree in Human Resources & Industrial Psychology. She has undergone supplementary training and received accolades in several leadership programs for hospitality, awarded by specialized schools and sat on various hospitality boards and advisory committees. One of the leading young women in the hospitality & tourism sector.
